Marco Macaco

LET'S GO BANANAS

The daily adventures of beach officer Marco Macaco, who dreams of solving a big crime. Only problem is that nothing ever happens on his tropical island. But that doesn't stop Marco from investigating and making a big mess of everything.

MARCO MACACO works as a dedicated beach officer and is the President's most faithful servant. When he discovers that his childhood sweetheart, the beautiful LULU has returned to the island, he immediately tries to win her heart. He is just about to succeed, when newcomer CARLO, builds a gigantic monkey-shaped casino right on Marco's beach. Lulu is fascinated by the charming Carlo. Jealously Marco starts an undercover investigation of Carlo's strange casino. Soon he discovers the truth. Carlo wants to take over the island and instate himself as President. When Marco tries to arrest Carlo a problem rises. Literally from the ground. Because Carlo's Casino is in fact a giant robot.

Marco sees himself as a super cool cop, but reality is different.

Lulu grew up with Marco and is interested in sampling strange exotic sounds which she uses to compose music with.

Carlo is Marcos rival. And the complete opposite of Marco. Carlo likes to party and have fun.

The President is a small dictator with lots of medals. He demands that Marco is alert and on duty 24/7.
